THE IRON ENTERED INTO HIS SOUL. First, the Lord had to clean my wounds, to remove all the dead flesh and trash from my will and heart and mind and desire, before he could give me another work and duty. In my heart, the dam of deadness is broken, washed away in a flood of grace—the blood of Christ, my Jesus.

Iron Into His Soul — The Moneychanger

If this translation is correct, and I believe it is, it has to do with one of the ways by which God turns us into stronger and better men — He puts iron into our soul." The preparation Joseph was cursed from the beginning. He was his father's favorite son, an unhappy circumstance that earned him the deep dislike of his brothers. But then Joseph cursed himself as well. He added to his brother's resentment by flaunting his most-favored status, literally wearing it on his sleeve.
