In informal logic and philosophy, an argument map or argument diagram is a visual representation of the structure of an argument. An argument map typically includes the key components of the argument, traditionally called the conclusion and the premises, also called contention and reasons. Argument maps can also show co-premises, objections, counterarguments, rebuttals, and lemmas.

The Difference between Essays and Reports. A report is a piece of informative writing, while an essay writing is structured around an introduction, body, conclusion, and the essay itself. While a report always goes to the process of identifying and evaluating the extent of issues in a report, essays focus is slightly different.
