, 172 U. S. 576 (1899), which held that the doctrine covers interference proceedings—a procedure to determine which of two claimants is entitled to a patent—even though interference proceedings were initiated by private interests competing for preference and did not involve a waiver of sovereign immunity.

Tahj Emmanuel Gomes. Proceedings held probably means that there was a hearing. Further arraignment means that the arraignment was continued. Although it is possible that there are other charges that would require a further arraignment, a continued arraignment is most likely. The defendant probably has not yet entered a plea...
